My Love

Robert Burns (1759-96): A Red, Red Rose (1794)

1. My Love is like a red, red rose so newly sprung in June!
My Love is like the melody
so sweetly played in tune!

2. As beautiful you are, my lass,
so deep in love am I.
And I will love you still, my dear,
till all the seas go dry.

3. Till all the seas go dry, my dear,
and rocks melt with the sun,
And I will love you still, my dear,
while sands of life shall run.

4. And fare you well, my only Love,
and fare you well a while!
And I will come again, my Love,
Were it ten thousand mile!
